JOCKEY

LUCY JAMES

Lucy rode as an amateur jockey for 17 years, riding approximately 70 winners between the flags and Welsh lady champion PTP jockey on three occasions. She hung up her racing boots in 2012 and now works on a construction site as a quantity surveyor.

BELLA JENSEN

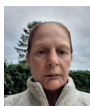

Bella is a young eventer who has been inspired to become an amateur jockey in six months and turn this challenge into her A-level Extended Project Question (EPQ).

MARTHA ALLHUSEN

Martha lives in London and works in real estate while studying for a master's degree. Martha's family breed racehorses which sparked her passion for the world of racing.

DONNA WALLIS

Donna works for the NHS as a healthcare assistant. She's riding in memory of her mum, Sue, who became just as passionate about horses as Donna. Her racing horse's first foal, Onemorefortheroad, was born in Chadlington on a patch of land which was Donna's late mother's paradise.

RICHARD MORRIS

Richard is a retired jockey getting back in the saddle after 20 years to raise money for charity. Richard from Surrey participated in his final race at Scotland's Musselborough Racecourse in 2005. He now works as an equine dentist which was more conducive to caring for his young family.

GEORGINA WOOD

Georgie is a freelance coach and rider based in Surrey. she loves producing and competing horses and is currently studying for a master's in veterinary physiotherapy.

RUTH MCLOUGHLIN

Ruth has enjoyed a full and varied working life with horses. She works with The Household Cavalry, training their newest recruits horse care for their Animal Care and Welfare Apprenticeships which runs alongside their daily duties. Her career has run closely alongside her BHS training, qualifications, and values. She's gained her Stage 4 in complete Horsemanship along the way.
