JOCKEY

NATALIE MAIDMENT

Equine massage therapist Natalie has spent months preparing for what she calls the ultimate endurance test. Inspired by a childhood love of racing and determined to push her limits, she's turning a bucket-list ambition into reality while supporting a cause close to her heart.

HOLLY BAILEY

Holly first rode on the gallops at 14 and worked with young racehorses before stepping away from the sport. Two decades later, her passion was reignited riding out for trainer Michael Madgwick. Now running her own livery yard and raising her horse-mad daughter, she's fulfilling a lifelong dream.

BELLA BAKER

Bella is a 17-year-old equestrian athlete and passionate horseball player from Sussex. In just two years, she has represented Team GBR four times across the U16, U21 and Ladies categories. Away from competition, she coaches and grooms at Lancing Equestrian and is working towards her BHS coaching qualifications.

TINKS WALKER

17-year-old event rider Tinks was inspired to take part following a road traffic accident in April that claimed the life of her beloved event horse, Benny. Trained by her uncle, Ed Walker, and his team at Kingsdown Stables, she is raising vital funds and awareness for the Dead Slow campaign.

RHYS HUGHES

Former jockey Rhys enjoyed success at courses including Aintree, Chepstow, Wincanton and Stratford. Today, he is part of the team behind Smugglers Equestrian Centre, a BHS Approved riding school and training centre in South Wales, where horses remain at the heart of everyday life.

MARTHA ALLHUSEN

Martha lives in London and works in real estate whilst studying for a master's degree. Growing up around horses sparked a lifelong ambition to race, and her family's involvement in breeding racehorses deepened her love of the sport. This charity race is the opportunity to turn a childhood dream into reality.

RICHARD MORRIS

Richard has spent eight years in racing, including as Head Lad to trainer John Akehurst, as well as competing in amateur races. A qualified equine dentist, he was due to ride last year but missed out through circumstances beyond his control. Now back, he's determined to make it count.

REBECCA HACKING

Rebecca's race day journey began when her neighbour spotted an article about the race and told her, "You would be perfect." She runs a retirement and youngstock livery business, breeds event horses and is raising money for Changing Lives Through Horses while taking on a remarkable challenge.

RAE GATLAND-HANLON

BHS Stage 5 Coach Rae has dedicated her life to horses, with eventing at the heart of her career. Despite having no racing experience, she was inspired to take part to give back to BHS, whose training and support helped shape her journey.
